Christmas Recitations.
The Baptist friends had a jubilant time at Follett Hall. There was an overplus of all the essentials and varieties. Cakes and pies were plenty, and of raisins and especially of candies not a few. The little folks as to numbers were fully up to the supply. It was a merry time. What the young folks could not stow away, the old folks made an attack on, and their appetite being laid out, the poor got the rest. So many were blessed. Just as it should be.

The Christmas tree of the M. E. Church was a success. The committee spared no pains to make the affair pass off creditably. $100 secured by the ladies oyster supper was expended in gifts for the trees. Services opened with singing by the choir. The pastor cordially welcomed the children in some happy remarks, and wished a merry Christmas to all. From the gallery where we sat the trees presented a beautiful appearance, and much credit is due the ladies for their tasteful arrangement. There were two trees one for infant class and one for the larger pupils and teachers. About two hours were occupied in divesting the trees of their choice fruit, interspersed with merry gleeful intervals. Gifts were distributed from the infant class to the pastor. Each child had a pair of lace boots full of candy. Prof. Miller was presented with a copy of poems. A silver gilt goblet to Mr. Washburn, from the choir. A silver cake basket to Rev. Mrs. Hickey, from the ladies. A fur collar and gloves to Rev. Mr. Hickey, from the Bible class. The services closed with singing and the benediction.

Gough's Lecture.

A week from Monday evening next, Jan. 8th, Gough gives his Temperance Lecture at Hewitt Hall. A larger number than ever before on a similar occasion have purchased tickets. And yet there is room. A word to our friends in the country. If in Massachusetts they get up excursion trains and go 30 miles to hear Gough lecture on Temperance, why cannot you take your carriage and come from ten to fifteen miles? Many a brainless young man with his girl will go much further to attend a New Year's ball. Let our thinking young men and women in the country come and hear the great orator of the country. And Fathers and Mothers will be the gainers if they come along too.

The Gift Sale.
The great excitement of the week is the Gift Sale now in progress at J. O. Cross & Co.'s. Citizens and farmers, everybody and everybody's wife, are flocking there to do their winter trading in order to obtain a Holiday gift. Two valuable sets of furs have already been drawn, together with several sets of less value. Gents for sets, six dollar shawls, Balmoral skirts, etc. With every $5 worth of goods the purchaser receives as a gift, some article worth from 50 cents to 50 dollars. This may seem strange but the establishment though selling as cheap as any in the city, can easily afford it out of the profits from the numerous sales. We understand they intend continuing the sale for sixty days, during which time their stock will be constantly renewed.

Election.
At the recent election after a warmly contested canvass Mr. D. B. Robinson was elected President of the Union School Lyceum over Mr. Charles Baldwin by 16 majority. The rest of the names on the same ticket were elected. There seems to be a split in the Union party and Mr. R. seems to head the majority (radical) faction. We trust that it is not the forerunner of a split in the great Union party of the country. If unfortunately so, may the radical wing also prevail.

Vacation.
The Holidays have become a specialty. The boys and girls in our schools are making the most of them. It is fitting that the vacation should embrace these days. The 8th day of January the pupils from abroad will return, reinvigorated for the active duties of the next term, and all will have more keenly whetted appetites for their studies.

Censor Document.
A curious document has been laid on our table. A fae simile copy of the South Carolina ordinance of secession, with the names in autograph of the signers. The original scroll of "treason" was found in the house of Dr. Lamb, Secretary of State. Copies are for sale at the News Office in this city, or of S. C. Watson, corner of Beaumont St. and Jefferson Avenue, Detroit.

Good Templars.
A Lodge of Good Templars was organized in Ypsilanti on the 11th inst., with the following officers, who were duly installed by Rev. J. Russell:

J. Estabrook, W. C. T.
Miss F. Buck, W. V. T.

REAL ESTATE AGT.

NOTICE.

The regular Annual Meeting of the Highland Cemetery Association of the city of Ypsilanti will be held at the Banking office of E. & P. P. Bogardus on Monday January 8, 1866, at 3 o'clock, P. M., to elect officers and transact such other business as may regularly come before the meeting.

F. K. REXFORD, CLERK.

Ypsilanti, December 28th, 1865.

Murderers.

Mrs. Haviland formerly Mrs. Leonard of this city, poisoned at Battle Creek three of her children. A Dr. Baker seems to be mixed up with the matter, and spiritualism seems to have given inspiration to the hellish deed, or it was a cloak to cover their wickedness. The three murdered little children were brought here to be buried. The funeral services were performed by Rev. Mr. Breed at the Quaker School House south. It was a sad sight to see the little ones, look plump and full, as if taken away in the midst of rosy health, which was the fact.

Watch Meeting.

The regular (preaching) service at 7 o'clock at the M. E. Church is deferred until half past 8 o'clock. The services will continue till 12. The members of other churches are cordially invited to participate.

DIED.
